Snow fell on Saturday in Minnesota, Northern Wisconsin and Michigan.

Politics is a trade that is learned only by hard knocks and plenty of experience.

DR. ROBERT C. CHENAULT has been appointed Superintendent of the Eastern Lunatic Asylum, at Lexington.

This is the time of the year when the wily politician calls his bosom friend one side and whispers some deep secret in his ear.

It is said that General Grant looks with decided disfavor upon the Republican alliance with the Mahone repudiators in Virginia.

One thousand people are down with yellow fever in Hermosillo, Mexico. Three houses out of every four contain one or more cases each. The thermometer rises to 106°.

CRESSON, on the Allegheny Mountains, in Pennsylvania, has been suggested as a good place for holding the next Republican National Convention for the nomination of candidates for President and Vice President.

THE colored men of Massachuset's in convention have resolved that the education of the negro in the south was the one great necessity of the south, and that all the rights and franchises to which the black man is entitled would come with education.

THE Synod of Kentucky (General Assembly) meets at Danville, October 10th. The Southern Synod meets at Harrodsburg on the same day. The two Synods will unite in celebrating, at Harrodsburg, the centennial of Presbyterianism in Kentucky.

SENATOR CULLOM, who succeeds David Davis, will not literally fill the latter's place, for he isn't much more than half as big, being only a medium-sized man. He is a good talker, and, like the average Illinois statesman, full of anecdotes and "little stories."

Mr. Wm. M. Evarts has spoken. His utterance, in condensed form, is to the effect that only four Republicans will be adopted for at the National Convention next year. These four are President Arthur, Senators Edmunds and Sherman, and ex Secretary Blaine.

THE Manchester (Oldo) signal is one of our most valued exchanges. It is neatly printed, gives promptly all the interesting news of its neighborhood, and is under the management of an intelligent and courteous editor. It is worthy of the support of all the good people of Adams county.

THE State Railroad Commissioners of Kentucky have completed their assessment and equalization of railroads. They assess the Circinnati Southern the highest of any road in the State, the valuation being placed at one-fifth of the aggregate valuation of the thirty or more other lines within the State.

For and About Women.

The Harvard "annex" for women is eminently successful. Two out of a class of five have become engaged to their teachers.

Miss Grace E. Medberry, of Stafford Springs, Conn., has gone to Lebanon, Ill., where she has been chosen professor of vocal and instrumental music in McKendsee College, the oldest institu-tion of the kind in the West.

Mrs. A. B. Churchill. of Montgomery, Ala, has the original copy of the constitution of the Confederate States, the first communication ever addressed to the Congress by President Davis and the first bond tor $50 issued by the Confed-

Charlie went to see his sweetheart the other evening, and after a proper amount of affectionate conversation, said: "I'll give you a pair of earrings. dear, if you'll earn them by letting me bore your ears." "Haven't I earned them already, then?" queried the fair object of his affections.

At the recent children's carnival in Saratoga one little girl was dressed to represent a gold mine, and she looked like a forty-pound nugget. Her shoes were gilded, her stockings were of goldcolored silk and her gown was a mass of gilded silk bunched up so that it looked like a rough, irregular chunk of gold.

John W. Duchaman, of Indianapolis, sued Mrs. Lily Hed. alleging that she had broken her promise to give him her hand in marriage if he would give her a $500 pianoforte. He added that she had also put cheese in his coffee, struck him with a broom and thrown a lighted match in his face. She denied every allegation, and said that he gave her the pianoforte unconditionally, and other presents as well. She admitted that she once playfully threw a piece of cheese at him when they were at the table, and that she pursued him with a broom when he tried to kiss her.

THE GHOST BUSINESS.

It Fails to Materialize Some Needful Rent.

FRIE, Pa., Sept. 30.—The spiritualistic society of this city, after stirring up all the eligible spooks in this section, is now holding a grand seance, in which its president, Hugh Jones, and its pastor, Moses Hull, are the principal medium. Moses Hull received a call from the Cleveland society, and, when about to leave the city, his goods were seized on a landford's warrant, by Jones. It now transpires that the lease for Hull's house is a contract between Jones and the socieis a contract between Jones and the socie-ty of which he is president and Hull as pastor. The friends of the manipulator of spirits propose to materialize the back rent by issuing a writ against the society and to seize Jones' household goods to liquidate the rent of his own house, in which Hull was living.

EXPENSIVE MINUTES.

$25,000 Whisked Away in a Very Few Seconds.

Boston, Sept. 30 .- On the day of one of the great failures in Boston recertly a eneck of the insolvent firm for $25,000 was deposited in a Boston bank and sent to the Clearing-House. It was then transferred to the account of another bank and was taken to that bank for redemption. The rules of the Clearing-House Association provide that checks when proved to be worthless shall be returned to the bank from which they were received before I o'clock on the day they are received. By courtesy the bank allows five minutes more. The bank which received the check in question, finding that it was not good, returned it to the other bank, where it was received just four minutes too late, and the holder of the paper loses $25,000.

BRUTAL CRIME.

Attempted Criminal Assault on a Young Girl.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Sept. 30.-Maggie McKernan, Mary Foley and Annie Raynor, each about eighteen years old, walked up the railroad last evening about 7 o'clock, on their way home from work, and a short distance below the Mill Street Debetween two trains by side on the tracks. Some one whom they failed to recognize crawled from beneath a car, and, roughly seizing Mary Foley by the ankles, attempted to throw her down. She screamed and struggled, and her affrighted companions ran oil screaming for help. Assistance arrived so soon that the man was compelled to relax his hold in order to escape. Before grabbing the Foley girl the same man reached from beneath the car and caught Annie Raynor by the ankle.

FILLED_WITH STONES.

Property a Suicide Tried to Take to Another World.

Boston, Sept. 30 .- The suicide of Mr Edward Bates, of Cambridge, who was to have married Miss Houdlett, of Catskill, on Tuesday, is attributed to entanglements of a social nature. In his pockets were found a lot of stones and soldering irons, and in his private desk were notes addressed to his betrothed and members of his family, announcing his intention of committing suicide. The mysterious woman who so uncermoniously addressed Miss Houdlett has not been discovered, but she is believed to have been one cause of the tragedy. Miss Houdlett is a native of Albany, where she owns considerable real estate. Mr. Bates was also wealthy, and all of his property will go to his children.
